

On behalf of the Town of New Baltimore we invite you to the opening ceremony for our Bicentennial Celebration.

“Celebrating 200 Years of Community”

New Baltimore was established from the Town of Coxsackie on March 15, 1811 by an act of the New York State Legislature. Originally part of the homeland of the Mahican Indians, the Town’s boundaries were within the patents granted by the Dutch and English governments to early settlers such as Barent P. Coyemans and Mathias Houghtaling.

We hope you can come and celebrate this milestone with us on

Sunday March 13, 2011

Time: 3:00 to 5:00pm

Where: the New Baltimore Town Hall 3809 County Route 51 Hannacroix, New York
This celebration will be held both inside and outside. Please dress appropriate for weather.

Sincerely,

Joyce Schoenig, NBBC Chairwoman
