SPECIAL REQUIREMENT FOR ACCEPTANCE OF APPLICATION: Eligibility for a valid New York State Motor Vehicle license/possession at time of appointment and this license must be maintained throughout employment.

EXAMPLES OF WORK: (Illustrative only)

Provides information to individuals or groups concerning services offered by public and private agencies; Assists clients in completing necessary forms, obtaining eligibility information, proof of births, deaths and marriages; Acts as an interpreter, if bilingual, to help clients and workers facilitate the intake process; May make home visits to follow up on broken appointments or gather routine information; Assists clients in areas of housing, employment, health care management, school attendance, recreation, money management, day care, transportation and escort; Assists in communication between agency, client and community by clarifying agency programs to individuals and conveying community cultural patterns and attitudes to agency professional staff; Assists individuals in recognizing conditions contributing to social problems and in making efforts toward correcting these conditions; Explains health/human service programs to clients; Assists clients to make informed choices.

SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

- 1. Applying information: These questions test for the ability to apply simple information. You will be given a Resource Directory that describes community agencies, their purposes and the type of client each serves. Questions describe clients with a variety of problems and situations. You must determine the appropriate referral for clients based on the services which each agency provides.
- 2. Interviewing: These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in obtaining information from individuals through structured conversations. These questions require you to apply the principles, practices, and techniques of effective interviewing to hypothetical interviewing situations. Included are questions that present a problem arising from an interviewing situation, and you must choose the most appropriate course of action to take.
- 3. Preparing written material: These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.
- 4. Working with people in human services situations: These questions test for a knowledge of general techniques used to deal with common client behaviors such as fear, hostility, shyness, resistance, defensiveness, withdrawal, anxiety and confusion.
